RUHS Foundation's Festive Holiday Fair to Light Up Riverside County

RIVERSIDE, CA (Nov. 24, 2026) – Riverside University Health System (RUHS) Foundation's Festival of Trees Holiday Fair, a longtime seasonal favorite of residents and visitors, is set to put Christmas cheer on full display Saturday, Nov. 28, at the Riverside Convention Center.

The free event runs from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. and will feature holiday-inspired activities for families and more than 70 elaborately decorated Christmas trees for viewing.

The public is invited to take a stroll through the sparkling holiday tree gallery, enjoy delicious holiday-themed treats and shop for unique handmade gifts and decor. The fair also has fun activities for children, including the chance to visit and take photos with Santa.

The Riverside Convention Center is located at 3637 5th St., Riverside. Reservations are not required. Parking in the Riverside Convention Center lot is $20.

"The annual Holiday Fair is a much-loved tradition that positively benefits the RUHS Foundation and the patients it supports. This is our favorite time of year, and we are looking forward to welcoming all those who love the magic of the season as we do," said Jill Eaton, Foundation Director.

The decorated trees are also featured at the sold-out Festival of Trees Gala, the Foundation's signature fundraising event Nov. 24 at the Convention Center. The trees will be displayed at the Holiday Fair before being delivered to gala sponsors.

Proceeds from the Holiday Fair and Festival of Trees events help fund major equipment purchases and improvements that directly impact pediatric patients while receiving expert care at the RUHS Medical Center in Moreno Valley.
