

MPX TESTING

Testing is conducted by swabbing the MPX rash, so it is only possible to conduct testing for MPX once a MPX rash is present.

Patients should first check with their own healthcare provider to ask whether testing is available. Some providers may or may not be able to test patients outside of their network at this time.

Healthcare clinics that are regularly conducting MPX testing are located on our website.

Borrego Health

borregohealth.org

(855) 436-1234

DAP Health

daphealth.org

(760) 323-2118

RUHS – Community Health Centers

rivco-familycarecenters.org

(800) 720-9553

Eisenhower Health

eisenhowerhealth.org

(760) 340-3911

For more information:

951-358-5107

 Riverside University
HEALTH SYSTEM
Public Health

CountyRiversideDepartmentofPublicHealth

Rivcoph.org/MPX